

About Payment Partners

Making payments on yourpubquiz.com and our partner game sites is safe. We are committed to protecting your data, and take every precaution to make sure your payment information is 100% secure.

We do not store any of our users' credit or debit card numbers, and all transactions are processed using Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology. We work with only the most trusted payment providers to process transactions through our site.

Currently we use two payment partners:

Paypal

PayPal is our primary method for dealing with payments. We also use their platform to process credit card payments to ensure a safe, reliable and accessible service.

PayPal is known as being one of the safest and most reliable payment operators online. The service allows anybody to pay for goods and services using a variety of methods, without sharing financial information. According to their site, "PayPal has quickly become a global leader in online payment solutions with more than 153 million accounts worldwide...available in 190 markets and 18 currencies around the world"

Click & Buy

<http://www.clickandbuy.com>

ClickandBuy is one of the leading payment systems on the internet. More than 14,000 merchants benefit from this complete service in 26 countries, which includes 126 different currencies and 46 different payment methods.

ClickandBuy makes it easy to buy and sell online. For 8 years, their innovative Internet payment and billing system has been one of the established market leaders.
